

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION
THOMAS E. HALL, et al. v. VITRAN EXPRESS, INC.
Case No.: 1:09-CV-00800

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, FAIRNESS HEARING, AND RIGHT TO APPEAR

This is a proposed Settlement with Vitran Express, Inc. ("Vitran"). This Notice summarizes your rights. More information is available online at www.vitranclassaction.com or by calling Class Counsel at 1-440-930-4001.

What Is The Case About?

If you are a Class Member, Vitran obtained your criminal background report from a consumer reporting agency to make a decision about whether you would be hired. The suit alleges that Vitran violated your rights under a federal law – the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq. (the "FCRA") – in the manner in which it used your criminal background check or other consumer report when you applied for a job or for other employment purpose.

The case alleges three separate violations of the FCRA. One or more of these applies to you. It is alleged that:

1. Vitran used background check consumer reports without first clearly and conspicuously disclosing to consumers that their reports would be obtained in a document consisting solely of that disclosure. You will be a member of this Class whether or not there was anything incorrect with your report and whether or not Vitran ultimately hired you (15 U.S.C. §1681b(b)(2));

2. For consumers who had a negative report, Vitran was required to provide a copy of the derogatory background check and other disclosures required by the FCRA before it took any adverse employment action (15 U.S.C. §1681b(b)(3));

3. For most consumers who had a negative report and against whom Vitran then took an adverse employment action, Vitran was required to provide a notice after the adverse action that informed him or her of the FCRA right to request a free copy of the consumer report from the consumer reporting agency – with the agency's name and contact information – and the manner in which inaccurate information could be disputed (15 U.S.C. §1681m(a)).

The case is assigned to the Honorable Dan Aaron Polster.

Why Did I Get This Notice Package?

You have been identified as a Class Member from the records of Vitran and HireRight, the consumer reporting agency that provided your background check. We believe that you incurred only the first FCRA violation described above. It is alleged that Vitran used your background check without providing you the initial disclosures required by the FCRA. It is NOT alleged that it took an adverse action against you or that your report contained negative information.

According to Vitran's records, you are one of approximately 2,936 Class Members who incurred only one FCRA violation alleged in this case.

The Court sent you this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a Class Action lawsuit, and about your options, before the Court decides whether to approve this Settlement. If the Court approves the Settlement and after objections and appeals are resolved, a settlement administrator will distribute the benefits the Settlement allows.

Who Are The Class Members?

Class Members are all applicants who, for the period from April 7, 2004 through March 13, 2009, applied to Vitran for employment and were entitled to a disclosure of the fact that Vitran would procure a consumer report or cause a consumer report to be procured for employment purposes in writing in a document that consists solely of the disclosure. There is a subclass of individuals against whom Vitran took adverse action based in whole or in part on the consumer report without providing Pre-Adverse Action Notice, and a sub-class of individuals who were declined employment without being provided an Adverse Action Notice. Excluded from the Class are any employees, officers, or directors of Vitran, any legal representatives, heirs, successors, assignees of Vitran, and any judge assigned to hear this action.

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement, you can ask for free help. You can visit www.vitranclassaction.com, or call Class Counsel at 1-440-930-4001.

What Are The Settlement Benefits?

You are entitled to a cash payment of $550.00 for Vitran's violation of 15 U.S.C. §1681b(b)(2). It has been determined that this violation applies to you. . This payment is after attorneys' fees and costs that may be awarded by the Court.

How Can I Receive Benefits?

You will automatically receive your benefit without doing anything if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement. If you take no action, you will receive a check for at least $550.00. Your interests as a member of the Class will be represented by the Class Representative and Class Counsel without charge to you. You will be bound by any judgment approving or disapproving the Settlement.

When Will I Receive My Benefits?

The Court will hold a hearing on August 31, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. to decide whether to approve the Settlement. It will take time for the Court to make its decision and for the Settlement to become final. There could be delays if there are any appeals to the Settlement. Please be patient. You can check the website, www.vitranclassaction.com, for updates on the case.

What Am I Giving Up To Stay In The Class And Receive Benefits?

Unless you exclude yourself, you cannot sue or be part of any other action against Vitran regarding the legal issues in this case involving the disclosure and the notices that were to precede the adverse action. This means you will give up any right to sue Vitran for any claims that you may have that are covered by the Settlement.
